

FBC Paris High School Ministry
Camp/Retreat Guidelines
2016

1. I understand that I need to respect the authority of the Student Ministry Leaders/Chaperones. I understand they have the authority to put in place additional guidelines specific to certain mission trips and retreats. I will honor these guidelines as well as the ones below.
2. I understand that there will be no arguing or complaining on this trip! (see Phil. 2:14)
3. I understand and will honor the established electronics guidelines. Cell Phones and iPods will be allowed, but only at appropriate times.
4. Dress in good taste and according to dress code (shorts of appropriate length, t-shirts with appropriate sayings, modest swimwear, no spaghetti straps...).
5. I understand that, for safety reasons, I must stay in groups of 3 or more people at all times. Also, for safety, I will wear a seatbelt at all times while in a vehicle.
6. I understand the need for separate sleeping arrangements, and will honor this by never entering the room of a person of the opposite sex. I understand that I need to abstain from public or private displays of affection.
7. I understand that I am to treat the property of others with respect and will not damage the place we are staying or another persons' personal belongings. I understand I am obligated to pay for the replacement/repair of items I have participated in damaging.
8. I understand that I cannot be outside of my room after "lights out."
9. I understand that I'm not allowed to POSSESS or USE tobacco, alcohol, or any other type of drugs. I understand that I'm not allowed to POSSESS or USE any weapon or fireworks.
10. I understand that I'm not allowed to prank, haze, harass, threaten, or intimidate another student or adult.

Consequences for Breaking Guidelines

1-5 These actions will be confronted once, and activity time will be taken away if appropriate. If deemed appropriate by student pastor or group leader, further action will be taken and student will be sent home at their family's expense.

6-10 These actions will result in the student being sent home immediately at their family's expense.

I will follow the above guidelines and respect FBC's leadership. I understand the consequences if I choose not to follow these guidelines.
